

W. W. WALTON,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.
T. R. WALTON, JR.,
BUSINESS MANAGER.

TERMS

One Copy, one year.....$3.00
One Copy, six months.....1.50

OUR JOB OFFICE IS COMPLETE in every particular; and our Job Printer is reknowned the best in the state.
Prices to suit the times.

The Fault with Women as well as Men.

While the newspapers in general are giving the men fits for the devilish persistence with which they pursue women with unwholesome desires, wouldn't it be as well to say something about those who not only excite those desires, but who deliberately fan them to fever heat and keep them there by the manner in which they display or half conceal their charms? Man is not made of wood, therefore when a beautiful girl appears in public clad in such an audaciously suggestive costume as one described by the Cincinnati Engines' correspondent, it is a wonder if he does not at once succumb to its influence. Says Clara Belle (who, by the way, seems to have a fondness for describing voluptuous costumes): "A perfectly tight dress waist, with two circular masses of delicate flowers at the bosom, and these floral piles arrayed in concentric circles around two tiny pink rose buds, was what I saw last evening on one of the sweetest and most innocent looking maidens it is possible to imagine. Of course the minx knew perfectly well how safely suggestive and alluring was this arrangement of her corsage. She had studied the effect in her mirror, beyond question, though her pretty face revealed no self-consciousness when she was under the fire of male eyes in the drawing room." The young lady could not have made matters worse by baring her bosom. We repeat that, when a woman deliberately resorts to such means to attract the admiration of the opposite sex, a man who approaches her with evil designs is not so much to be censured as the woman. It there was less immodest dressing, perhaps there would be fewer crimes of a certain character to record. To show the effect of voluptuous dressing, an incident is recalled of a young painter, poor but honorable, who attended a fashionable ball, at which were present many lovely women. With one of these he danced. The lady was clad in costly garments, and her neck, shoulders and half her bosom were bare. The young man stood beside her at a window after the dance, and gazed on her exposed charms until, maddened by desire, he seized her in his arms, kissed her face, lips, shoulders and bosom fiercely, and realizing what he had done, went to his room and shot himself through the heart. That woman was responsible for his conduct and his death. It would be well for teachers of morality to pay a little attention to such matters before going to extremes in denouncing all men. With less fast dressing there will be fewer fast men. —[Sunday Argus.]

Sensational Tragedy.

What has long been a matter of suspicion has now been clearly proved to be a matter of fact. There has for some time past existed an association of infamous persons of both sexes, whose business it has been to entrap girls in England for immoral purposes in France and Belgium. The Correctional Tribunal at Brussels has within the last day or two sentenced eight persons to terms of penal servitude for acts in connection with this traffic, which fortunately brought them within the jurisdiction of the penal code.

The case of one of these poor girls who have given their evidence is the case more or less of all—of how many, indeed, it will be impossible to tell. Attracted by an offer of better prospects on the continent, a girl employed in a shop in London is induced to leave England in company with some one whose respectability seems beyond doubt. She arrives in Brussels, and is reassured to find that her conductor has a wife. The day after her arrival she is taken to a public office, she is told where it is necessary that her name, age and calling should be registered. There is no official interpreter for her. Then she finds that she has been entered as a prostitute under a false name, and that her female protector is the "gouvernante" of a house of ill-fame. The rest of the story is painfully simple. Tears, pleadings, demands to be set at liberty on the one side, brutal and indescribable outrage on the other; finally, as in cases before the Brussels tribunal, hospital, from which friends are invited to rescue the wretch of what was once an innocent English girl.—[Pall Mall Gazette.]

A melancholy man at Dayton, Ohio, for ten years constantly carried the means of suicide in his pocket, so as to be ready for self-destruction whenever he felt like it. Sometimes the thing was a dose of poison, the bug being either arsenic, laudanum, hydrocyanic acid; sometimes it was pistol or knife, and yet not unfrequently it was a neat noose of rope. At length, when misfortune crushed him entirely, he found that the relish at hand was laudanum, and he used it exclusively.

VOLUME X.—NUMBER 1.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1881.

WHOLE NUMBER 469.

PLEASE NOTICE!

The Office of The Interior Journal has been removed to Masonic Hall, Entrance on Lancaster Street, next door to Farmers' National Bank.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Comparative Value of Sharon's Services to the Pay He Receives.

The other evening a citizen of Detroit beckoned to his 12 year old son to follow him to a woodshed, and when they had arrived there he began:

"Now young man, you have been fighting again! How many times have I told you that it is disgraceful to fight?"

"Oh, father, this wasn't about marriage or anything of the kind," replied the boy.

"I can't help it. As a Christian man it is my duty to bring up my children to fear the Lord. Take off your coat."

"But father, the boy I was fighting with called me hard names."

"I can't help it. Calling names don't hurt anyone. Off with that coat."

"He said I was the son of a wire-puller."

"What's that?"

"And he said you was an office hunter."

"What's what father dared to make that assertion?"

"It made me awful mad, but I didn't say anything. Then he called me a hirsel."

"Called me a hirsel! Why, I'd like to get my hands on him!" puffed the old gent.

"Yes, and he said you was a political kicksville!"

"I and o' gracious! wouldn't I like to have the training of that boy for about five minutes!" wheezed the old man as he hopped around.

"I put up with that," continued the boy, "and then he laid you down for office and got led by a large majority. I couldn't stand that, father, so I sailed over the fence and licked him bald-headed in less'n two minutes! Thrash me if you must, father, but I couldn't stand to hear you abused by one of the malignant opposition."

"My son," said the father as he felt for half a dollar with one hand and wiped his eyes with the other, "you may go out and buy you two pounds of candy. The Bible says it is wrong to fight, but the Bible must make allowance for political campaigns and the like."

No little excitement has been caused in Pittsylvania county, Virginia, by the discovery that nearly all of the colored people living in the vicinity of Pleasant Gap are joining a newly-organized league, the constitution of which forbids its members from hiring themselves as laborers to the white farmers. The object of this organization is to force all land-owners to work their lands on shares with the colored people. The Pittsylvania farmers are very much excited over the matter, and it is said they will at once organize a vigorous opposition to this move, which they regard as prejudicial alike to the interests of blacks and whites. Rather than give way to the demand of the League many of them affirm their determination to attempt to get white laborers. Others consider it an effort on the part of the negroes to form a body after the order of the Irish Land-League, and that boycotting will be the next thing in order. As yet there has been no hostile demonstration on either side.

There is a little brown-eyed, enthusiastic, high-spirited lady, who, after she has cooked breakfast, cleaned things away, set the house to rights, attended the call of the bread wagon and milked the cow, dons her hat and cloak, comes into this office, yanks us out of the editorial easy chair, pounces the exchange, amputates every item of interest, stacks them on the copy-hook, grabs up a Faber, trivels it over a quire of editor's manuscript paper, removes her snowy white apron, shoves up her sleeves, grabs up a stick and rule, and sets it all into type, reads the proofs and corrects every error. That's our wife, and she will get her reward in heaven. —[Cartersville (Ga.) Express.]

GETTING A HUSBAND.—Near Paris a peasant girl was deserted by her lover, who had promised to marry her. Some time afterward he called and found her washing clothes in the garden, near a well. They had been chatting a while, when suddenly the girl, as if by accident, dropped a cloth in the well, and exhibited great grief over the loss of it. Her companion volunteered to leap over in the well and fish the garment out; but while he was so engaged the girl caught him by the legs and threw him in. In reply to his cries, she told him that if he would promise to marry her she would pull him out. He promised; but no sooner was he out than he brought suit against her for trying to murder him. Then at last he withdrew it and married her.

AN APOLOGY.—A rather bashful young man, upon his first appearance into society, was so unlucky as to make several mistakes; becoming more and more confused, he sank deeper into the mire, until at last he left the room in despair, with this apology: "Oh, auntie, let me see you salt her."

It is estimated that it will only take about twenty years to consume the original pine forests of Georgia, and it is thought to be time for the adoption of some effective measure of protection. The Mason Telegraph and Messenger estimates the consumption during 1880 at a little over 250,000 acres.

The experiment of irrigating lands in the neighborhood of Paris with water from the rivers is said to be working successfully. Sterile tracts of land have been converted into rich plains, while the increase of trees among the inhabitants has followed, as was anticipated.

Then you'll see, said the

Something to Blow About.

The New York Sun has taken the trouble to examine the records for the traces of Sharon as Senator, and gathering into one table the figures of the whole six years, his service as Senator of the United States is exhibited in grand totals, thus:

Total days of the Senate in session.....600

Total days of Sharon present and voting.....521

Total days in historical doubt.....21

Total days of Sharon an absenter.....67

Sharon's percentage of attendance.....87

Sharon's percentage of non-attendance.....13

In doubt.....10

As to the total results in a parliamentary way of Mr. Sharon's service of nearly six years, we have these amazing figures:

Total number of speeches delivered by Sharon.....5

Total number of motions consumed by Sharon.....10

Total number of personal explanations.....6

Total times participating in debate.....6

Total number of bills introduced.....1

Total number of petitions presented.....1

Total number of motions to refer petitions.....1

Let us now reckon the cost of Mr. Sharon's services to the country "on business principles," as Senators are elected in Nevada. His salary is $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term, expiring in less than two months from to-day, he receives from the Treasury the sum of $30,000. Whether his conscience has allowed him to draw mileage for every session we do not know. He shall have the benefit of the doubt. How has Mr. Sharon earned the $30,000 paid him by the people? If he has earned it sitting in his arm chair in the Senate chamber, he has been paid at the rate of $6,000 per year. In the six years term,

The Interior Journal.

STANFORD, KY.

Friday Morning, March 4, 1851

W. F. WALTON, Editor

We have repeatedly shown up Mr. Blackburn's abuse of the paroling power, and shall continue to do so as occasion requires; but, like the Covington Commonwealth, we do it entirely for the public good, and are not so down on him as to refuse to give him praise when he deserves it. We think he deserves it in the instance given below, and we give it to him unreservedly. A few weeks ago a man named Coffey was tried in Louisville and convicted of the murder of Dudley. The jury rendered a compromise verdict, and then petitioned the Governor to pardon Coffey. His answer was to the point: "No, I do not propose to accept the responsibility shifted by a jury when it renders a compromise verdict with recommendations to the Executive in the prisoner's behalf. In other words, they can't palm off their broken-down, spavined horses on me for horses sound in wind and limb." Now, if the Governor will not take the responsibility from any of the juries in the future, the law-loving people may yet be induced to rise up and call him blessed.

The Anderson News gives us some good advice in regard to our little spat with the Danville Tribune, all of which we endorse. Newspaper quarrels are as distasteful to us as anybody and we try never to provoke one. We had no intention whatever of raising a breeze when we, in the best of good humor, said that the picture of "Uncle Tom" published in the Tribune was a good likeness of Murphy's father, and we do not believe that any but the most assinine of tools would have construed it into a thrust at his paternal relative. We did not know that he ever had one, and therefore could not have meant any disrespect to "the white-haired man eighty years old." But the skunk seemed to think that we did, and thereupon let loose his stink-boxes upon us. We could not stand the stench without turning up our nose, but we are heartily ashamed of ourselves for having ever noticed so vile and dirty a varmint.

SENATOR MATTHEW HALE CARPENTER, of Wisconsin, died in Washington this week of Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, aged 57. He was a man of exceedingly bright mind, and his loss will be felt in the body, of which he has so long been a member. He had a life insurance of $60,000, but besides this he leaves no property of value. The disgraceful itch for office among the Republicans of Wisconsin was shown in the fact that several candidates to fill his shoes were out electioneering long before the breath had left the Senator's body. The Legislature being in session, a successor will be immediately elected.

THEY tell a pretty little story of Mrs. Garfield, the aged mother of the President. En route to Washington with her son's family, the porter of the sleeping car having forgotten to extinguish the lights after the bright rays of the sun had begun to illuminate the world, the old lady called the President elect, and said: "James, put out those lamps. It is no use wasting oil when it is doing no good. It is hoped that this lesson of economy will show its fruits at the White House for the next four years."

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL enters its tenth year to-day, and its seventh under the present management, in a most prosperous condition. Our subscription list is larger by several hundred than last year, and now ranks among the largest in the State, for all of which we return our grateful thanks to kind friends and patrons.

THE Richmond Register is sixteen years old and almost as interesting as a damsel of that age. Green and Tip pull together finely.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—John Winn killed Wm. Morland near Paris this week.

—The amount of U.S. Currency outstanding at this date is $362,085,258.

—President Hayes has ordered that the Senate convene in special session to-day.

—The State Medical Society meets at Covington on the 5th, 6th and 7th of April.

—The total number of deaths in New York since January 1st was 6,348, an enormous increase over previous years.

—The Mardi Gras excursion did not pan out well, the L. & N. R. R., selling only 169 tickets and the Cincinnati Southern but 50.

—The Catholic orphanage at Scranton, Pa., was destroyed by fire on the night of the 27th. Seventeen children were roasting alive.

—Frederick Green, of the Louisville & Nashville R. R., has resigned and Mr. C. C. Baldwin, of New York, has been elected in his stead.

—The Louisville's Washington man has been examining the pay rolls of the different departments in that city, and finds that 1,175 Ohio men are on them.

—The Virginia Republicans are talking of nominating Col. Guerilla Mosby for Governor—a devilishly empty honor since he would not have a ghost of a chance of election.

—The prolonged Senatorial agony in Pennsylvania ended a few days ago in the election of John L. Mitchell, a very dark horse, to succeed Senator Wallace. He is a Cameron man.

—A bill is now pending in the Tennessee Legislature to pay the debt of Memphis ($4,000,000) at twenty-five cents on the dollar, while the bondholders insist upon fifty cents.

—And now they are saying that Oscar Turner must succeed Beck as U. S. Senator. God forbid, as long as the State has so much better material lying around in almost every little village.

—Good-bye, Hayes. Goodmorning, President Garfield. Hope the universe on which you start business is in your favor that you may make John Vonderheide paid the penalty of a mis-spent life at Shelbyville last day. The Sheriff officiated at his funeral and did his part in a most approved manner. Vonderheide himself was as cool as a cucumber, and joked and lied during his last half-hour speech with a recklessness rarely ever before displayed. He seemed to have a special spite against the Concord-Journal, which he prophesied would become bankrupt before many days. A moment before the trap was sprung he kicked off his slippers, saying: "Give them to some poor person; the Concord-Journal shall not have the satisfaction of saying: 'He died with his boots on.' With his chances in life, Vonderheide will hardly be held responsible for his wickedness in the world to which his spirit has gone. Born of a prostitute and begotten by the lowest of the slums of creation, raised in a bawdy house and spending most of his life in jails and penitentiaries, he could end as he did.

—James Burton, a Pulaski farmer, while returning from church Sunday night, missed his way and walked over a forty-foot bluff. He was found dead, with his head crushed and both arms broken.

—A negro by the name of Jim Jones, of Wayne county, Ky., went home drunk Friday night and beat his wife with an iron chain until she was insensible, and then skipped. She died Saturday morning. —The State Capitol at St. Paul, Minn., was destroyed by fire on the 1st, and the Legislature, which was in session, barely escaped cremation. Loss of building and furniture, $100,000. The records in the vaults were saved.

—The lottery business is not a popular one in New York. Another dealer, Robert Dunn, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for six months and to pay a fine of $1,000. The lottery and policy dealers have suspended business.

—The jury in the case of Col. Cash, on trial at Charleston, S. C., charged with murder in having killed Shannon in a duel, some time ago, failed to agree, and the Judge ordered a mistrial. The jury stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction.

—All the regular appropriation bills, except the general deficiency bill, have been passed. The total amount appropriated is $191,280,165. The largest amount heretofore was $189,225,793.04, for 1874, the smallest during the past twelve years, $145,409,278.25, for 1870.

GARRARD COUNTY.

Lancaster.

—The White Dramatic Combination played "Kisen from the Asises" to a fair house Wednesday night. In my opinion, it is the best company that has visited this place for years.

—My statement in my last that John Faulkner would be tried at this term of the Boyle Circuit Court, for killing Marshal Simpson, was premature. Faulkner has not been indicted yet.

—Mr. Browne informs me that, on account of the failure of his partner, Mr. Bradley, to come to time with the necessary funds, the Bulletin will, after this week's issue, go to the Enterprise.

—Mr. W. H. Greenleaf, the popular agent of the express department of L. C. and L. railroad at Lexington, is here with his wife for a few days. Will A. Burnside, of Cincinnati, is here visiting his sister, Mrs. McLean, and others of that neighborhood. Ah, Will!

—Monday was the dullest County Court day known here for years. Very little stock on the market, and less sold. Geo. Alford bought privately one saddle horse for eighty-five dollars.... Wm. Loyd has just returned from the South Carolina mule market. He reports stock selling for less there than it can be bought in Kentucky.

—Master Commissioner Walton sold during the week one tract, 73 acres land, with box dwelling, situated on the Danville pike, near the iron bridge, for $350. Also, a tract of 158 acres, in the upper end of the country, for $1,400.... James N. Denney sold to L. W. Hudson 25 choice, out of a lot of 34, calves, to be taken November 1st, 1881, at 3¢.

—Mrs. Rogers, formerly of Rockcastle, was tried for insanity before Judge Duncan Tuesday, and ordered to the Lexington Asylum. Her scoundrel of a husband, after inoculating her with a most loathsome disease, deserted her. She has for some time been an inmate of the poor house, but her misfortunes have so impaired her mind as to make the change to the Asylum necessary.

—Robert C. Wherry, of Cincinnati, spent several days with relatives here this week.... Miss Jones, having captured everything in the way of young men, has started the messies. If she is as successful in this as in the other—"ta ta," messies.... Miss Florence Trueheart was here last week.... Cole Bradley and Faulkner have gone to the Garfield inauguration.

—Accidents will happen in the best regulated newspaper offices, and with the most temperate editors. Vasco D. Browne having in the last issue of the Central Bulletin declared himself in favor of temperance, emphasized the declaration Sunday night by getting "gloriously drunk." Not being in the habit of indulging in "sick," he did not know that the proper thing to do would be to hang on to a lamp post and hale himself out, so he meandered, "as it were," to his boarding house, went to his room, vomited all over the bed and floor, and then wiped his mouth with the bed sheet. Mr. Sagaser, the proprietor of the house, upon discovering the state of affairs, had Mr. Browne arrested. He was brought before the Judge Tuesday morning, but in default of one hundred dollars bail, where he remained till afternoon when he was again taken before the Judge, and confessing, was fined ten dollars and perquisites. While Mr. Brown is very much mortified over the matter, he thinks he has been badly treated by some one, and he proposes to make the next issue of the Bulletin exceedingly interesting.

—Robert C. Wherry, of Cincinnati, practiced by virtue of a custom heretofore practiced by the Democratic party of this senatorial district, embracing the counties of Boyle, Lincoln, Garrard and Casey, is tacitly agreed that the candidate represent the said district in the Upper House of the General Assembly shall be selected from each of the above-mentioned counties literally, and

—WHEREAS it is known and recognized fact that Boyle, Lincoln and Garrard counties have each in her turn selected a candidate whom Casey county has always generously and liberally supported, therefore be it without encroaching upon the rights or privileges of others, it is our duty to select from among the many worthy citizens of our county some gentleman who, in integrity of character, is worthy of the confidence of the people of the said district and of all of whom the favorable consideration and support of every Democrat in the district.

Resolved, By the Democrats of Casey county, that we, the members of this party, in common with our associates, we believe,

Now, we, the members of this party, in common with our associates, do hereby select this day selected A. Clark as a candidate for the State Senate from the Eighteenth Senatorial district, and do hereby recommend him to the people of the said district as a citizen in every way worthy of their confidence and support.

T. M. M. FREEMAN, CHURCH,
W. H. REPPERT, SECRETARY.

Mt. Vernon Department.

SAM M. BURDETT, Editor.

—With the summer players resume?

—Monday was one of the most disagreeable days of the season.

—The Democrats of Laurel should trot out a nag for the Legislative race.

—How much will you give to help purchase an organ for the Sunday-School?

—Mr. M. P. Newcomer is having a payment made from his store around the hotel to the depot.

—Eld. W. L. Williams, of Hustonville, will preach here next Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night.

—A new depot and supply warehouse has been erected at Livingston for the accommodation of the railroad contractors.

—The following conundrum was made by a young lady: What sense is essential to a lawyer's success? Lie-sense (license).

—If "Fido" wants his communications published he must send his real name, not a pseudonym.

—Will the county authorities surrender to the whisky men? The whisky men are standing together, and they have drawn the first blood.

—There is considerable sickness in the community about Livingston. No less than three persons in that vicinity are seriously ill, this week, from gun-shot wounds.

—Rev. Mr. Ragan, of the Methodist Church, preached here Wednesday night.

—At the conclusion of his discourse there were three addition to the Church. The Methodist brethren here and many more citizens are very anxious to have a visit from Rev. J. S. Sims, of Stanford.

—Judge McClure had Monday gave the bar-keepers in this town notice that the illegal whisky traffic must cease. Two of them have recently quit religion. They certainly ought to quit selling. If they don't quit and Judge McClure undertakes to enforce the law, there he found good enough as grounds to convict them.

—Miss Belle Williams, of Dunnville, and Amanda Moore, of Liberty, Mr. Sam Helm, of Turnerville, and Mrs. William Martin and William Jasper, of Pulaski, are attending school at Middlebury Seminary.... Rev. Mr. Wheat, member of the Alabama Conference, of the M.

—Mr. Uriah Allbright, who has long been afflicted with cancer, continues to grow more and more feeble. Though a great sufferer he is very patient.

—J. W. Goff was arrested last Monday on two warrants charging him with a violation of the whisky law. His trial was set for Monday next. He was released on bail in the sum of $200. John Riddle, a whisky man from Pulaski, becoming his bondsman.

—Wednesday morning just as the train pulled up to the depot, a stranger rushed through the crowd of ladies on the platform, into the depot to purchase a ticket. He was rather drunk and was waving a big Colt's navy pistol over his head. His manner was very pompous and there are few men who could stand before him. Just before leaving on the train he concealed his pistol. He returned on the up train and one Sheriff, W. H. Allbright, met him with a little writ. His name is W. L. Fordham. He is a contractor's boss on the railroad works in Laurel. When taken before Judge McClure, he was unable to give bond and was sent to jail.

—Ed. C. Rigby was married on the 25th to Miss America Davenport.... At the Clerk's office at one o'clock on the morning of the 25th, by Rev. A. C. Tabor, Thomas Hamlin was married to Miss Maggie Fair. This is the second time this couple have come to town to get married.

—Mrs. Maggie Coleman and Miss Sallie Waters, of Middlebury, were in town last Saturday evening. Mrs. Coleman is a popular young widow and Miss Waters is the belle of Casey.... Squire M. C. Portman, of your city, was here Monday, buying mules.... Miss Laura Coffey returned to the first of the week from a three weeks' visit to friends on the Rolling Fork.... Miss Maggie Allen came home from Columbus last Saturday, and brought with her Miss Clara Whitehead.... Alva Pullins, of Pine Hill, was visiting her mother this week.... Miss Belle Smith, of Point Lick, is the guest of Miss Mattie Newcomb.... Mr. and Mrs. Willis Adams, Jr., and Mrs. Jack Adams, of Paint Lick, were here visiting relatives the first of the week.... Mrs. L. Dean, of Pine Hill, spent Sunday with Miss Clara Whitehead.... Alva Pullins, of Garrard, and W. B. Cecil, of Boyle, were here Monday.... Mr. J. H. Chandler, of Pine Hill, went to Lebanon last Monday to visit his mother.... Miss Georgia Howard and Miss Lou and Bettie Crawford, of Broadhead, came up Sunday to hear Mr. Barnes.... Mr. L. C. Alcorn, of Pine Hill, was in town this week.

—Last Monday was County Court Day. There was quite a crowd in town and everybody was sober. The business in Court was light. A few fines were entered against individuals for failing to work on roads. G. W. McCleure, Master Commissioner, George A. Prewitt, sold several tracts of land which brought good prices. The Sheriff gathered more taxes than he has any day for months. The Democratic Convention met, and to judge from the crowd, we suppose that nearly every Democrat in the county was present. When the count was completed, four stalwart Democrats lifted the nominee upon their shoulders and carried him to the courthouse, followed by the most enthusiastic crowd that we have ever seen. Mr. Elder and his friends pledged themselves to vote for Mr. Clark at the August election, and this makes Casey solid to a man. There has never been a candidate more warmly recommended to those who do not know him than was Mr. Clark by the Convention last Monday. Following are the proceedings as reported by the Secretary:

—The Chairman of the Executive Committee, J. W. Whipple, stated the object of the meeting, and made an apt speech in regard to the importance of it. At Mr. Whipple's suggestion, Mr. McFerran was elected chairman, and made a sensible speech, dealing strongly on Casey's Democratic fealty, and her right to have a Senator once in a while. W. R. Reppert was appointed Secretary. A. R. Clarke was nominated by Mr. John Yeater; Hanline Elder was next nominated by Mr. Brewer. The vote was taken in the public square. A. R. Clark received a majority, and his nomination was declared unanimous. Mr. Clark made a spirited speech, pleading the principles of the party, and pledging himself to stand where he had always stood—down with the ship when she went down, if she should go down. The following resolutions were adopted with a whoop and a tiger, and the assembly then dispersed, to meet again on the Fields of Philippi:

—WHEREAS by virtue of a custom heretofore practiced by the Democratic party of this senatorial district, embracing the counties of Boyle, Lincoln, Garrard and Casey, it is tacitly agreed that the candidate represent the said district in the Upper House of the General Assembly shall be selected from each of the above-mentioned counties literally, and

—WHEREAS it is known and recognized fact that Boyle, Lincoln and Garrard counties have each in her turn selected a candidate whom Casey county has always generously and liberally supported, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Democrats of Casey county, that we, the members of this party, in common with our associates, we believe,

without encroaching upon the rights or privileges of others, it is our duty to select from among the many worthy citizens of our county some gentleman who, in integrity of character, is worthy of the confidence of the people of the said district.

—WHEREAS it is known and recognized fact that Boyle, Lincoln and Garrard counties have each in her turn selected a candidate whom Casey county has always generously and liberally supported, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Democrats of Boyle county, that we, the members of this party, in common with our associates, we believe,

without encroaching upon the rights or privileges of others, it is our duty to select from among the many worthy citizens of our county some gentleman who, in integrity of character, is worthy of the confidence of the people of the said district.

—WHEREAS it is known and recognized fact that Boyle, Lincoln and Garrard counties have each in her turn selected a candidate whom Casey county has always generously and liberally supported, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Democrats of Lincoln county, that we, the members of this party, in common with our associates, we believe,

without encroaching upon the rights or privileges of others, it is our duty to select from among the many worthy citizens of our county some gentleman who, in integrity of character, is worthy of the confidence of the people of the said district.

—WHEREAS it is known and recognized fact that Boyle, Lincoln and Garrard counties have each in her turn selected a candidate whom Casey county has always generously and liberally supported, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Democrats of Garrard county, that we, the members of this party, in common with our associates, we believe,

without encroaching upon the rights or privileges of others, it is our duty to select from among the many worthy citizens of our county some gentleman who, in integrity of character, is worthy of the confidence of the people of the said district.

—WHEREAS it is known and recognized fact that Boyle, Lincoln and Garrard counties have each in her turn selected a candidate whom Casey county has always generously and liberally supported

The Interior Journal.

STANFORD, KY.

Friday Morning. - March 4, 1851

L. & N. TIME CARD.

Pasenger Train to Louisville..... 7:15 P. M.
Pasenger Train to Richmond & Lexington..... 1:10 P. M.

LOCAL NOTICES.

FISHING TACKLES McRoberts & Stagg's
Seed, Irish Potatoes at Owsley & Higgins.

HALF & NUNNELLY have received a carload of salt.

Grocery to Chemut & Penny's and settle that account of yours.

BURKEWELL FLOUR, Oat Meal, Grits,
&c., at Owsley & Higgins.

HALF & NUNNELLY are agents for the celebrated Rushford Wagon.

LAKE SHORE Seed Irish Potatoes, of all kinds, at Hale & Nunnelly's.

For that Cough new White Pine Syrup, prepared by McRoberts & Stagg.

WALL PAPER, latest styles and a large stock, cheap at McRoberts & Stagg.

Buy your School Books, Slates and other stationery supplies of Chemut & Penny.

Trip Celebrated Garrard County Horse
Festivals Remained for sale at Chemut &
Penny.

Two thousand pounds of Series Hams—
the best in the market—at Hale & Nunnelly's.

PAINTS, White Lead, Oils, Varnishes, Window Glass, at bottom prices at Chemut & Penny's.

PERFUMERY, Toilet Soaps, Hair, Nail and Tooth Brushes, and toilet articles of all kinds at Chemut & Penny's.

HAMILTON STEEL PLow, and the South bend Chilled Plow at Owsley & Higgins, all warranted to give satisfaction or no sale.

TRUSSURE & VANASPIEL have a nice line of Men's and Boys' Ready-Made Clothing, and will sell them lower than anywhere.

HALF & NUNNELLY will inform the public that they will again be in the wool trade. Parties wishing to sell will find their interest to see them first.

PARTIES owing us on accounts or note prior to July 1, 1850, will find the same in the hands of an officer if not settled in the next thirty days. Chemut & Penny.

DRUGS, MARY'S SOAPS, Lotion, Etc., Calomel, Diphteria, Cancer, mouth, and Head Ache, in Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy.
A nasal Injector free with each bottle,
Use it if you desire health and sweet breath. Price 50 cents. Sold by Chemut &
Penny.

DYSPENIA AND LIVER COMPLAINT.—
It is not worth the small price of 75 cents to free yourself of every symptom of these diseases. If you can afford it, make a call at our store and get a bottle of Shiloh's Elixir, every bottle has a printed guarantee on it, use accordingly and if it does you no good it will cost you nothing. Sold by Chemut & Penny.

ON WHAT A COUGH!—Will you heed the warning. The signal perils of the sure approach of that more terrible disease—Tuberculosis. Are you not willing to run the risk and do nothing for it? We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your Cough. It never fails.
This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup and Whooping Cough at once. Mothers do not be without it, or Lanc Bain, Side, Chest, nose Shiloh's Purum. Plaster. Sold by Chemut & Penny.

PERSONAL.

REV. MR. J. S. SMITH has gone to visit his late parents in Mississippi.

Mrs BETTIE PAXTON has returned from Louisville entirely restored to health.

MISS ELLEN ELKIN, who has been way for several weeks, is again at her father's.

MISS LUCILLE REEDLEY has just returned from a visit to New York.

CHARLES H. WILSON writes on that he has a good position in a printing establishment in Louisville.

MRS. LUCILLE PIERCE, of Covington, Ill., the long-time cousin of Miss Annie Craig, is her guest at present.

SHERIFF J. N. MENICHE has his family on the Court of Appeals and visiting his old school-mate, Gov. CRISTAL.

SENATOR J. H. BEVAN went to see Garfield inaugurated, and takes a peep at the negroes and white-wingsing contest at the Ball.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MR. JOHN CASE celebrated his 70th birth-day Tuesday by calling and settling his subscription to THE INTERIOR JOURNAL for the tenth annual time.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from
the latter that we will publish next week.

MISS MARY JOHN H. JONES has invited
Kong, Teut, Teut. We have an interesting letter from the latter that we will publish next week.</p

